

Schlathaus Park 123 All Angels Hill Rd Wappingers Falls.

5 Acres

Schlathaus park is located nearly in the center of the Town of Wappinger. The park hosts almost all of the recreation department's events, including the annual Carni "fall" parade and fair. The bandstand on the property takes center stage during the annual summer concert series.

Facility Areas: War Memorial, Band Shell, House

The Town of Wappinger is a blessed waterfront community located in New York's beautiful Hudson River Valley, just 70 miles north of New York City. Boasting a Hudson River shoreline coast Wappinger is home to 28.5 square miles of quiet neighborhoods, five star dining, premier shopping amenities, breathtaking natural sites, fascinating history, exceptional schools, over 17 miles of waterfront, and so much more! We hope that you will immerse yourself in the pride and joy that makes up Wappinger.

Town of Wappinger Parks and Recreation

Park Guide

WWW.WAPPINGERRECREATION.COM

Town Board

Joseph D. Cavaccini
Supervisor

William H. Beale
Councilman Ward 1

Angela Bettina
Councilwoman Ward 2

Christopher Phillips
Councilman Ward 3

Al Casella
Councilman Ward 4

Town of Wappinger
Department of Parks and Recreation
Recreation Director: Jessica Fulton, CPRP
20 Middlebush Rd
Wappingers Falls, NY 12590
845-297-0720

Spook Hill Park 38 Spook Hill Rd Wappingers Falls

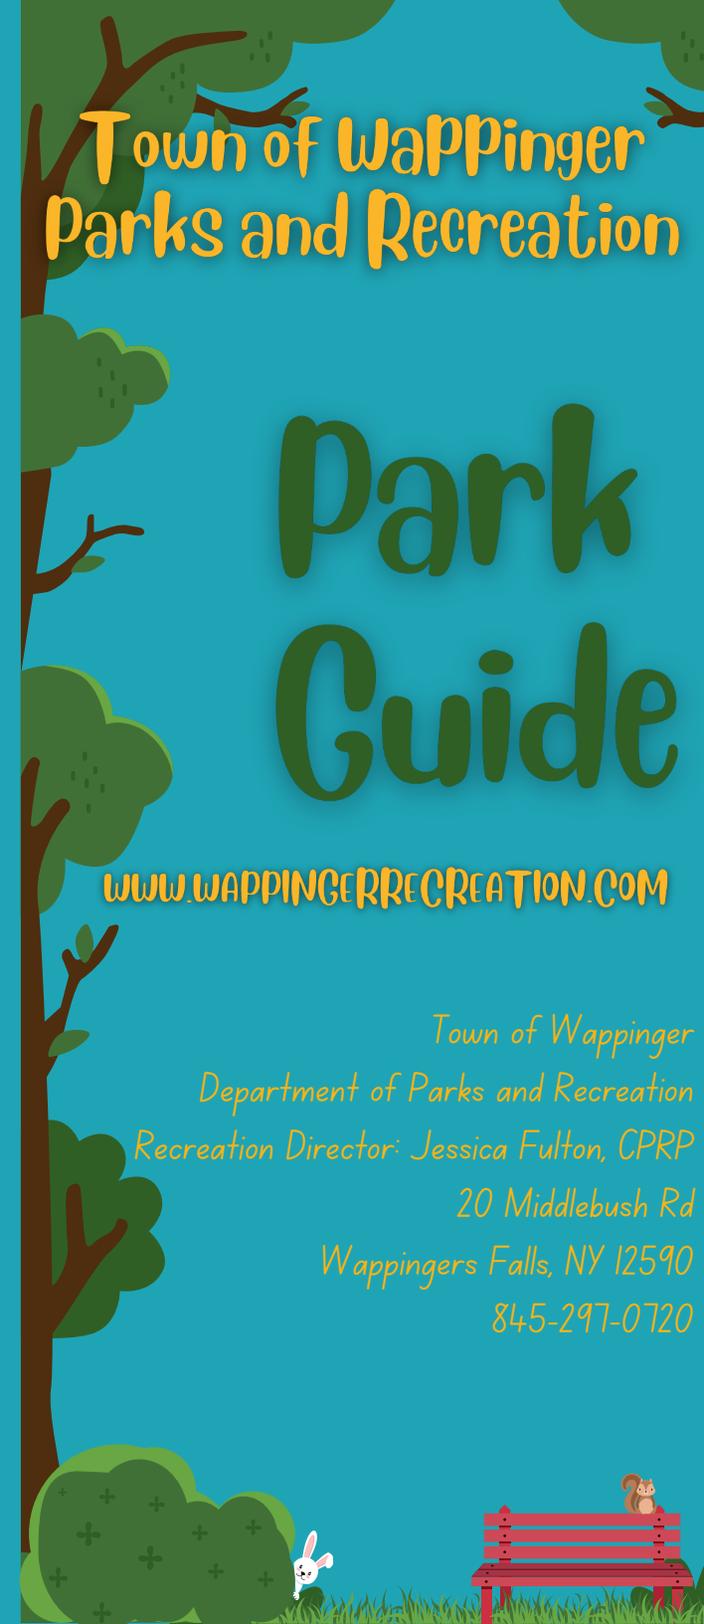

Spook Hill Park has been receiving a full makeover the past few years. New playground equipment has been installed, some outdoor fitness equipment has been added and there are big things just on the horizon for this wonderful park.

Facility Areas: Field House, Handball Court, Pavilion, Playground, Outdoor Fitness Equipment

COMING SOON

Spook Hill's Renovations continue!
16 new pieces of outdoor fitness equipment will be added soon as well as a 1.0 mile walking track.

AirPort Park 61 Airport Drive Wappingers Falls

10 acres

Airport Drive Park is home to many of the Town's soccer fields, as well as a pavilion and field house. This park is considered the "home" field for the Wappinger United Soccer Club.
Facility Areas: Pavilion, Soccer Fields

Fleetwood Park Fleetwood Dr. Wappingers Falls

2 Acres

A Neighborhood Park in the Fleetwood Development
Facility Areas: Playground, Basketball Court

Reese Park 214 Creek Rd. Wappingers Falls.

40 Acres

Reese Park is a 40 acre green space adjacent to the Wappinger Creek. The park has been preserved as an area to observe nature along scenic trails.
Facility Areas, Nature Trails, Pond, Pavilion

Carnwath Farms 99 Cobblestone Rd Wappingers falls

99 Acres

Carnwath Farms Historic Site & Park is located in the Wheeler Hill Historic District. The grounds are open to the public for hiking and recreational activities. Come check out Frances Reese Cultural Center, home to the Sports Museum of Dutchess County and take a hike along the Wappinger Greenway Trail

Martz Field 126 Pye Lane Wappingers Falls

11 Acres

Martz Field is a large complex that is spread over Pye Lane and Montfort Road. The portion on Montfort Road has two tennis courts and beach volleyball courts. The other half of the park on Pye Lane has additional tennis courts, a basketball court, baseball field and playground. All of these facilities are open to the public, and are used by the Town of Wappinger Summer Camp.
Facility Areas: Baseball Field, Basketball Court, 2 Beach Volleyball Courts, 3 Tennis Courts, 8 Pickleball Courts, Pavilion, Playground

Robinson Lane 95 Robinson Lane Wappingers Falls.

40 Acres

Robinson Lane is the center of baseball in the Town of Wappinger. There are 15 baseball fields making up The William T. Farrell "The Big Guy" Memorial Fields at Robinson Lane Park. Adult and youth leagues practice and compete at the baseball complex. Robinson Lane is home to "Inspiration Field". The modified surfacing allows those who need wheelchairs or other assistive devices to enjoy playing baseball.
Facility Areas: 15 Baseball/Softball fields, Pavilion, Playground

Castle Point 312 River Road S. Wappingers Falls

40 Acres

A beautiful view of the Hudson can be enjoyed from the pavilion at Castle Point Park. The park contains two baseball fields as well as a playground area for the children. This park is home to the Kenneth A. Browne Memorial that honors a Wappinger Resident who was killed in action during the Korean War.
Facility Areas: 2 Baseball Fields, Pavilion, Playground

Quiet Acres 61 Helen Drive Wappingers Falls.

6 Acres

Quiet Acres Park is a large open area with plenty of room to run. The park is often used by a local rugby club for their games. The back end of the park borders a section of the Wappinger Creek.
Facility Areas: Baseball Field, Basketball Court, Pavilion, Playground

Rockingham Regency Drive Wappingers falls

Rockingham Park is another Soccer Hub in the Town of Wappinger
Facility Areas: Pond, Soccer Fields, Playground