

THE WAPPINGERS HISTORICAL SOCIETY PRESENTS A NEW GUIDEBOOK:

WAPPINGER REVOLUTIONARY ROOTS HISTORY, HEROES AND HIDDEN PLACES

Pick up your free copy at the WHS table at the Town of Wappinger Living History Day

An engaging 56-page guidebook and historic sites map featuring biographies of 30+ local patriots who served in local militias, along with the names and locations of the cemeteries where they are buried. The guidebook also highlights colonial-era historic sites throughout the town, with narratives about the settlement areas, plus a map of the wayfinding signs for the Wappinger Revolutionary Roots Trail to help visitors locate and explore these historic places. We gratefully acknowledge Dutchess County for its generous grant support which made the creation of this guidebook and map possible.

Visit the WHS
table at Living History Day

Hands-on Colonial Activities for the whole family:

- * Game of Graces
- * Writing with quill & ink
- * Shut the Box
- * and more

Pick up your copy free copy of the
guidebook and map,
or visit our website
for a digital version (www.wappingershistorical.org)

LIVING HISTORY DAY

September 12, 2026
1pm – 3pm

Carnwath Farms
Historic Site and Park
81 Carnwath Farms Lane
Wappingers Falls, NY